

LUCY REES

Deep Dive Ethology Day: Screening of Lucy Rees' latest documentary film, 'Notes About Horses' & observation with the Sirona herd.

We are excited to welcome Lucy Rees for an ethology day and screening of her latest documentary; 'Notes About Horses: The affiliative behaviour that eliminates the concept of dominance in equine social life.'

This will be followed by an observation session with Sirona's herd of horses where Lucy will provide narration and Q&A.

Writer, ethologist and horse trainer, Lucy has travelled and worked in many countries and equestrian disciplines discovering the easiest, most universally applicable and successful ways of understanding and working with horses.
